DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 11-14, 16, 20 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McCarthy (U.S. 5,004,111). McCarthy teaches a film composite 20 having a plurality of layers 24/40, 36 and 26. The uppermost layer is comprised of elements 24 and 40. The layer beneath the uppermost layer is element 36 and adhesive 38 is therebetween. The upwardly projecting fold is shown in fig. 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Han et al. (U.S. 4,934,544) in view of McCarthy (U.S. 5,0074,111). Han et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the fold being in the uppermost layer only. McCarthy teaches that it is known to provide a grasping tab and fold from the uppermost layer alone (see element 24). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the composite film of Han et al. with the fold and grasping tab being formed by the uppermost layer alone, in order to reduce the amount of material used by providing a single layer in the folded tab.

Han et al. teach a film composite, shown in figures 1-3, having an adhesive layer 34, 38, a sealing layer 32, a facing layer 40 and a fold at 24.

Regarding claims 4 and 21, the modified film of Han et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the specific percentages of the two areas on either side of the fold. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the modified film composite of Han et al. with the smaller area on one side of the fold comprising between 40 and 50 percent of the surface, since a change in size is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955), and since it has been held that “where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation.” In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955).

Regarding 7, 8, 18 and 19, the modified film of Han et al. discloses the claimed invention except for the specific length of the fold. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the modified film composite of Han et al. with the fold extending roughly 1.0 to 1.5 cm from the fold bottom to the fold tip, since a change in size is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art. In re Rose, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955), and since it has been held that “where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, it is not inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation.” In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 456, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The new grounds of rejection were necessitated by the amendment filed October 14, 2003.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
